Report on Children's Day Celebration with the bright children of DumDum slum areas

Organized by The Community Connect (NSS and NCC) Club of Dr. Sudhir Chandra Sur Institute of Technology and Sports Complex (An Autonomous Institute)

Date: 14th November, 2025 (Children's Day)

Venue: DumDum Station Area Slum and Chatakol Slum Area

Objective: To celebrate Children's Day with underprivileged children by distributing food items and small gifts, continuing the annual tradition of the club.

No. of Participants: 45 Students (Volunteers)

In adherence to its commitment to social outreach and community engagement, like every year, the Community Connect (NSS and NCC) Club of Dr. Sudhir Chandra Sur Institute of Technology and Sports Complex successfully organized its annual Children's Day celebration on November 14, 2025. This year's focus was on bringing joy and providing support to the slum children residing in the DumDum Station Area and the Chatakol Slum Area.

The celebration was organized and executed by a dedicated team of 45 student volunteers from the NSS and NCC units. The activities were structured to maximize interaction and ensure a memorable day for the children.

- Food Distribution: As part of the annual tradition, the primary focus was on distributing festive and celebratory food items. The volunteers successfully distributed a variety of treats, including:
 - Cakes
 - Chocolates
 - Biscuits
- Gift Distribution: To further brighten their day, small, thoughtful gifts were distributed to all the children present. These gifts were intended to be both joyful and useful.
- Interaction and Engagement: Volunteers spent time engaging with the children, playing small games, and sharing stories, reinforcing the club's motto of 'Community Connect' and ensuring a warm, personal touch to the celebration.

Outcome of the event

The event was met with tremendous enthusiasm and gratitude from the children and their families.

- The celebration successfully continued the club's tradition of commemorating Children's Day with the less fortunate, demonstrating the institute's commitment to social responsibility.
- The initiative provided a tangible means of support and a source of happiness for the children in the targeted slum areas.
- It served as an impactful sensitisation and leadership exercise for the 45 participating students, promoting empathy and teamwork.

The Community Connect Club extends its sincere gratitude to the respected Principal Sir, institute management, faculties, and the 45 dedicated volunteers whose collective effort ensured the success of this meaningful event. The successful execution of the Children's Day celebration on November 14, 2025, reinforces the club's resolve to continue such impactful community service initiatives in the future.
